"What we are is
God's gift to us.
What we become
is our gift to God."

Foreword

As the school year passes we pause to catch a final glimpse of everything we have done. Our classmates, our friends, our teachers have all played a part in this, our years at Saint Paul's College.

We have attempted to preserve the memories through words and pictures. You, the students, of Saint Paul's made it; you lived it; here it is -

Room "W" is in a hub bub! You will hear Alexander and advisors Law and Jones muttering something about the deadline.

Alan: "Wait, there's a picture missing. Oh! those sophomores, why do they all have to have faces?"

Lillian: "Rush! Phone Law, tell him those pictures must be in by the seventh!"

Samuel, The Business Manager, "But do we have enough money for that extra page?"

"Irving, can you get your car? We must work this afternoon."

Alexander, "Get Wright and Lillian on this typing immediately!"

These are but a few people behind the yearbook. They have rushed, fussed, and fumed to bring you an unforgettable yearbook, and here it is, The Tiger.

Dedication

To our advisors, we give thanks. You have helped us in many ways. These ways may seem small to everyone else, but not to us. We realize that the little things can mean a lot. Many things have we learned from watching your activities day by day. We are thankful for this.

The class of '60 dedicates this TIGER to you, Mr. T. H. E. Jones, and Mr. Thomas Law.

It is our own past which has made us what we are. We are the children of our own deeds. Conduct has created character; acts have grown into habits, each year has pressed into us a deeper moral print; the lives we have led have left us such as we are today. - - - Dykes

In Memoriam

MRS. MADELINE JONE McCLENNEY
WIFE OF OUR PRESIDENT

We often sit and think of her when we are alone.
For memory is the only friend that grief can ever own.

Like ivy on a withered oak when all other things decay.
Our love for her will still keep green and never fade away.

DR. EARL H. McCLENNY, President

President's Message

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1960:

I congratulate you for reaching this stage in your educational growth and development, and I hope you are ready and willing to say, "Of thee we sing, DEAR ALMA MATER."

Saint Paul's has made every effort to bestow priceless gifts upon your heads and in your hearts - respect for academic excellence, wisdom, truth, humility, honor, service, loyalty, brotherhood, manhood, womanhood, and reverence. We hope you are now prepared for more abundant life.

Remember that cooperation, hard work and a desire to contribute something worthwhile to a better Christian and democratic way of life will lead you to a successful life of contentment and happiness.

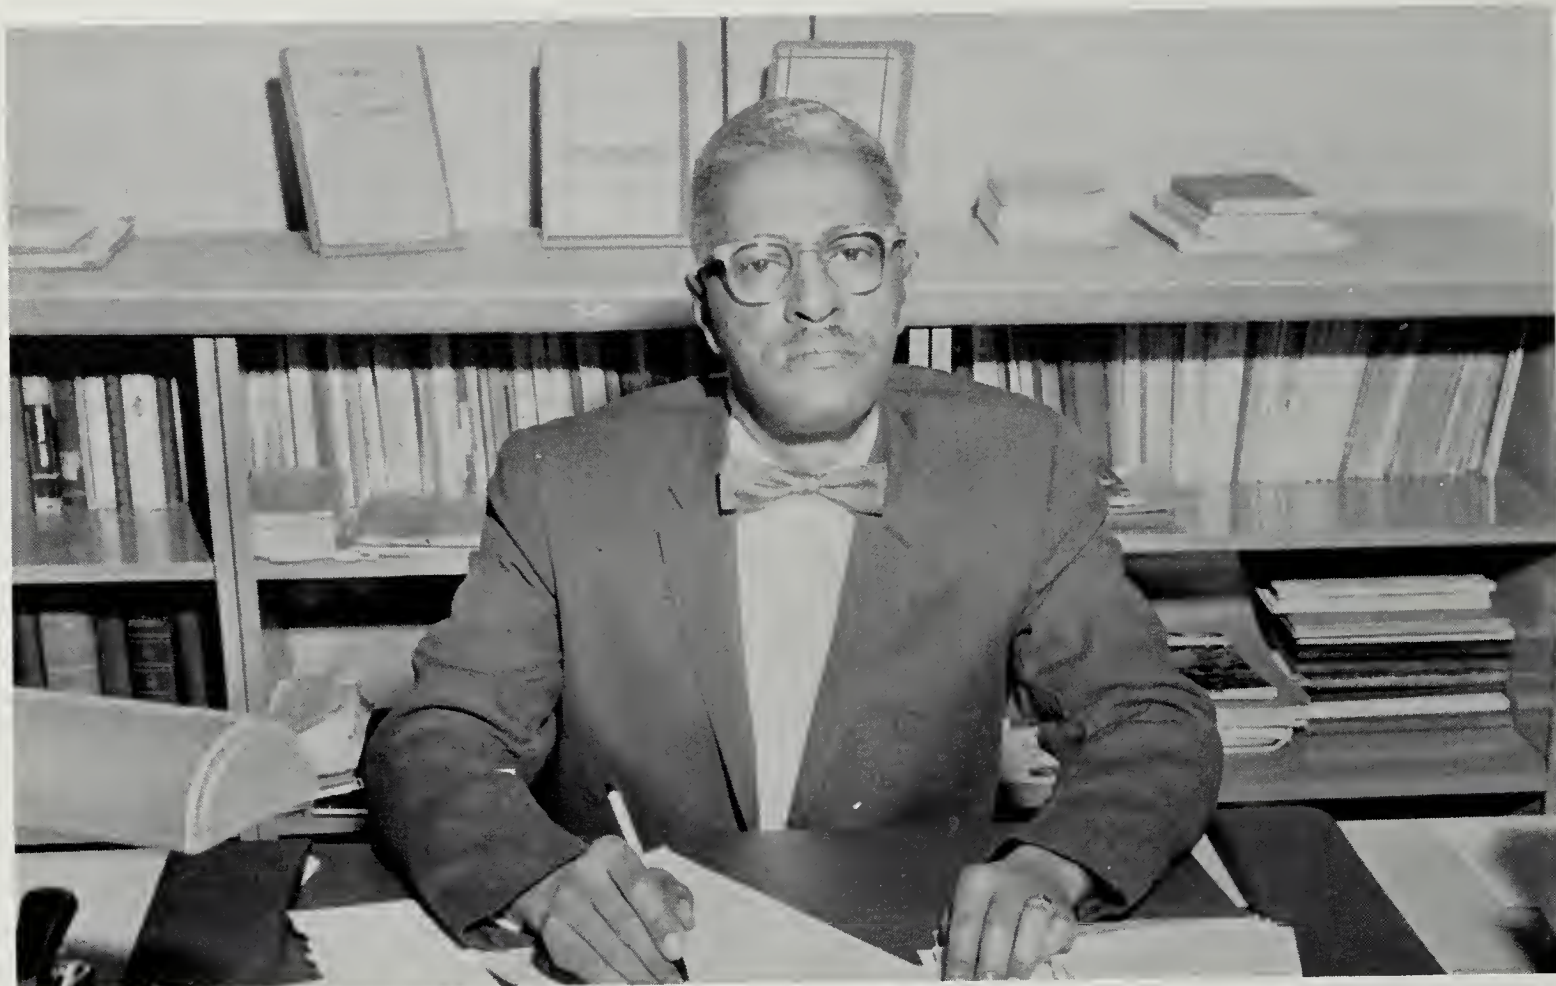

In the years to come you will appreciate Saint Paul's more and more. Keep a special place in your hearts for all of us, and especially the College. The College will never forget you.

We sincerely wish for you success and happiness in all your undertakings, and bid you Godspeed.

Sincerely yours,

Earl H. McClenney

Dean's Message

Dear Alumnus:

I address you alumnus because within a few days after this book has been released on Saint Paul's Campus you will be an alumnus of this college, Class of 1960. As an alumnus, your responsibilities are not what they were as a student, they are much greater.

As a student you had the constant care and guidance of the faculty. As an alumnus you will be called upon to demonstrate the maturity that the guidance to which I have referred was supposed to develop. The extent to which you demonstrate maturity in your every thought and action will measure the extent to which your college was successful in its attempt to develop you into the adult who justifies the very existence of this college.

You must demonstrate maturity now. You cannot wait; you cannot rest; you must not procrastinate. You are living, not in 1960 when men's thoughts reached only a little farther than their eyes could see, but in 1960 when men's thoughts reach beyond eternity. You must be a contributing part of this outward reach. I have faith that you will be no less.

Sincerely yours,

CLASS MOTTO

We have made the first step, knowledge. We yet strive to make the second step, wisdom.

Class Poem

If we could turn back the hand of time,
It would reveal our days at Saint Paul's sublime;
Few days of sorrow, more of joy and bliss
Our staff and classmates made certain of this.

We have struggled hard to reach the goals
That could satisfy our immortal souls,
To meet the challenge of the world today
And help all others along the way.

Dear Saint Paul's we love thy hills so green,
A life so pleasant, divine, serene;
But time moves on, saying, "Depart!" "Depart!"
From the hallowed place, dearest to our heart.

We shall always be kind, loyal and true
We'll uphold the high standards inspired by you,
We'll wear our armor, both day and night
We'll keep the faith, we'll win the fight!

By Elsie W. Spence

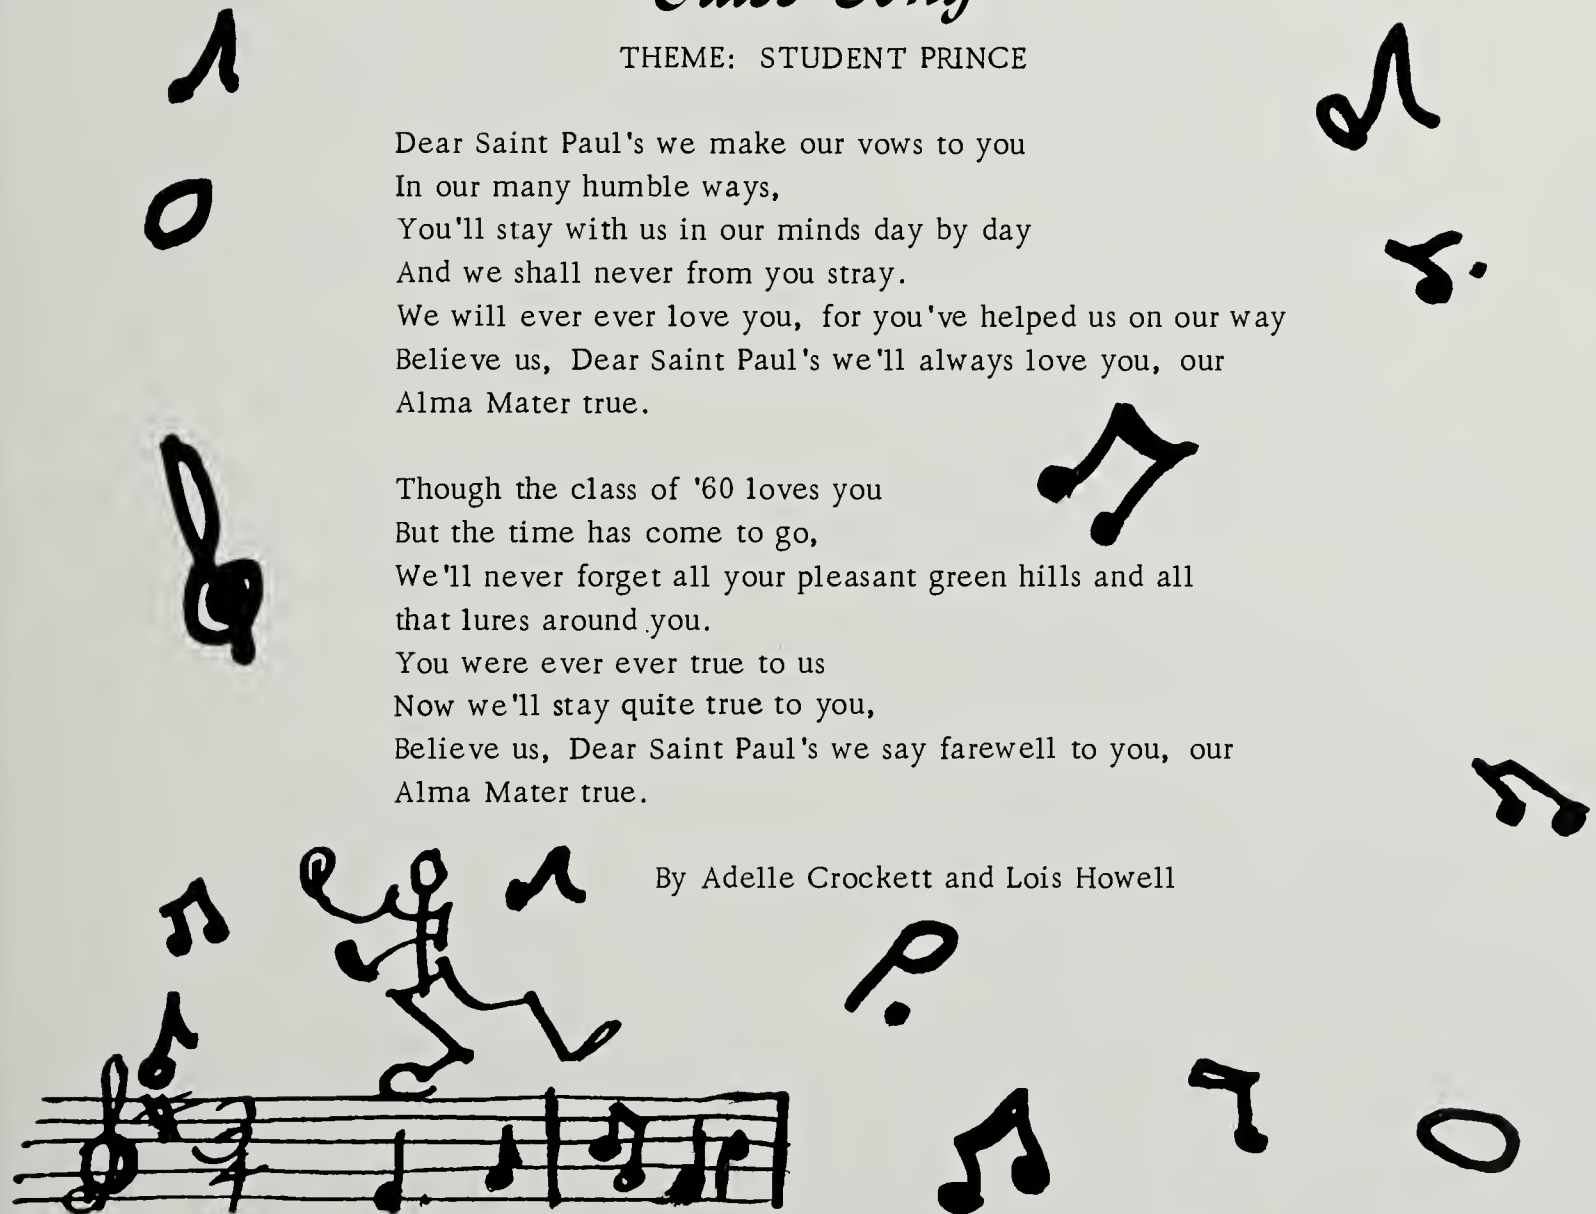

Class Song

THEME: STUDENT PRINCE

Dear Saint Paul's we make our vows to you
In our many humble ways,
You'll stay with us in our minds day by day
And we shall never from you stray.
We will ever ever love you, for you've helped us on our way
Believe us, Dear Saint Paul's we'll always love you, our Alma Mater true.

Though the class of '60 loves you
But the time has come to go,
We'll never forget all your pleasant green hills and all that lures around you.
You were ever ever true to us
Now we'll stay quite true to you,
Believe us, Dear Saint Paul's we say farewell to you, our
Alma Mater true.

By Adelle Crockett and Lois Howell

Last Will and Testament

SENIOR CLASS OF 1960

We, the Senior Class of 1960 of Saint Paul's College, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

First, to the President of Saint Paul's College, we bequeath our appreciation for providing us with such a capable and well-balanced faculty.

Second, to the members of the Saint Paul's College faculty, we bequeath affection, gratitude, and many overdue "Thank You's" for individual services and favors.

Third, to our Senior Class Sponsors, Mr. T. M. Law and Dean T. H. E. Jones, we bequeath one year of "Thanks a Million."

Fourth, to the Senior Class of '61, we bequeath the traditional Senior Class headaches.

Fifth, to the Senior Class of '62, we bequeath our ability to pass the English Comprehensive Examination.

Sixth, to the Senior Class of '63, we bequeath our magic formula for making good grades for four years: Hard work plus conscientious studying plus full utilization of the library equals four years of successful academic achievement.

Seventh, the following individual bequeaths are given in the hope that each of you will accept them as valuable assets:

I, Joseph Weston, will my ability to keep time and scores for the basketball games, to Tyrone Mason.

I, Kenneth Wright, will my ability to study accounting to James Long.

I, Irving H. Green, will my ability to fail the "comp" to the future failers.

I, Susie U. Terry, leave Room No. 104 to Carol Hill, Joyce Carter, and Florence Hughes, so that they will be closer to Dollie Jefferson.

I, Adelle Crockett, leave to Virginia Vaughn my seat in the alto section hoping it will inspire her to keep singing.

I, Robert Johnson, will my cool temper when under pressure to Quintin Lambert.

I, Elsie Spence, will my seat in Dr. Chen's class to Emma Phelps.

I, Shelton Penn, will my technique of getting girlfriends to a "lame" called Bennie Woodward.

I, Dorothy Evans, will my height and weight to Gracie Pierce.

I, Charles Wardell, will my ability to get all the fine "babes" to my proteges Reginald Smith and Willie Rennick.

I, Mildred L. Daise, will my ability to cope with special O. B. students to Alyce Johns and my ability to sing alto to Mary Goins.

I, Shirley Burton, will my ability to stay out of trouble to Elaine Johnson, Rosa Holmes, Alyce Johns, Wylie Draper, and Nathan Witherspoon.

I, Lillian Morings, will my ability to take the bitter with the sweet and keep striving for the things that I want most to those who find it necessary to give up if at first they do not succeed, and my dramatic ability to Teola Thomas. Good luck, Teola!

I, William Roots, will my ability to be loud and wrong, be broke at all times and to know everybody on campus to Percell Strawbridge.

I, Charles Shirley, will my ability to play basketball and to capture the hearts of the opposite sex, and keep people confused to Charles Knight and Robert Haynie.

I, James Hubbard, will my ability to be cool and to mind my own business to Tommy Saunders.

I, Samuel Lockley, will my scholastic ability to Calvin Stanley with the hope that he will strive for high scholastic achievement.

I, Alexander Hargraves, will my ability to mind my own business to those students that find it necessary to do otherwise and my dramatic ability to any good actor.

I, Mary Holt, will my singing ability to Aldora Greene in hopes that she will improve.

I, Fannie Midder, will my deep affection for Saint Paul's College to all Freshmen.

I, Gloria Walker, will my ability to keep quiet at the right time to my sister, Barbara.

I, Eleanor C. Williams, will my ability to look for the "brighter day" in life to anyone who feels that life is a mass of gloom.

I, Sarah Walker, will my ability to be a day student and attend out-of-class activities to Shirley Hudgins.

I, John Diggs, will my pitching ability to Alga Evans.

I, Lois Howell, will my kindness in chaperoning the Freshmen to the movies to Loretta Young.

I, Theresa Wilkins, will my ability to cram for exams to Willie Douglas Ingram.

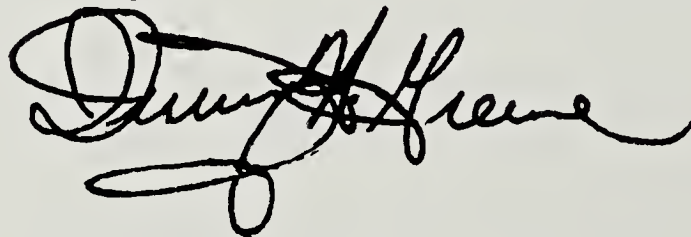

I, Alan Thomas, leave my credit card at Braidbart's Clothiers to Calvin Stanley and my ability to run the 100 yard dash in 9.7 to Frank Wilson.

I, James Wilson, leave my ability to study to any deserving student.

I, Albert Alexander, will to some outstanding young man my ability to be cool around the girls.

In witness whereof, I, Irving Green, the testor, have set my hand and seal here-to this twentieth day of May in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty (1960).

Signed

Integrity without knowledge is weak and useless.

In all things preserve integrity; and the consciousness of thine own uprightness will alleviate the toil of business, soften the hardness of ill-success and disappointments, and give thee an humble confidence before God, when the ingratitude of man, or the iniquity of the times may rob thee of other reward. - PALEY

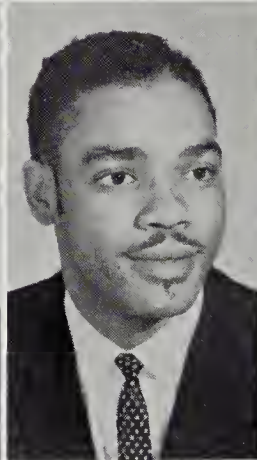

Every man should use his intellect, not as he uses his lamp in the study, only for his own seeing, but as the lighthouse uses its lamps, that those afar off on the sea may see the shining, and learn their way. - H. W. BEECHER

To manage a business successfully requires as much courage as that possessed by the soldier who goes to war. Business courage is the more natural because all the benefits which the public has in material wealth comes from it. -- Charles F. Abbott.

Class Prophecy

The alumni of the Class of 1960 is assembled in the Mezzanine of the Statler Hotel. It is May 30, 1970, and we are celebrating our first class reunion. Our toastmaster for the evening is William Roots, that famous Saint Paul's impersonator, who made his debut on the stage of the Chicago Building.

While talking to the class, I learned many things that were of interest. Some of them are as follows: Albert Alexander is a big time contractor who was responsible for the first skyscraper on the moon. Employed in his office as duster is the great Lillian Morings. She seems to be enjoying her work.

William Brown has a good office job, emptying trash cans and in his spare time he dusts the typewriter.

Mildred Daise and Lois Howell are still singing "Catch a Falling Star." I hope they succeed since they haven't caught anything else.

Adelle Crockett is going up in the theatrical world. She runs the elevator in Hollywood.

Blanche Gaitor is still in business (other peoples).

Sherley Stuart is still chasing girls. I hope that he will soon catch one.

I have learned that Gloria Walker and Sarah Walker are making barrels of money designing L. W. D. 's.

Mary Holt, Joseph Weston and James Wilson are employed at a speech clinic for all babies between the ages of 3 and 12 months.

Elsie Spence has invented a girdle for extra slim people. It is held up by suspenders.

Tillie Bonner has finally put her beautiful second soprano voice to work. She sings in a country choir.

Jesse Carter has just written a book, "How Not To Lay Bricks," based on real experimentation. Get well soon.

Vernon Daniels, John Diggs, Irving Green, and Alexander Hargraves are employed at the same hotel, as bell hops.

Dorothy Evans is now employed by Thaddeus Hagans. She is his mouth piece in all business deals.

Lucy Green can finally distinguish between Blue and Brown. She married Black.

Class Prophecy

Lois Hayes and Louvenia Harmon have been in the hospital suffering from heart trouble, (Love Disease). They are about to make a comeback, also on this list is Alexander Hargraves.

James Hubbard and Henry Hollimon are still clean. They are working for the Health Department.

Gloria Jenkins, St. Clair Jones, Grace Pearson, and Ruby Woodley are trying to develop a pill that will reduce all unnecessary fat.

Fredrick Johnson and Robert Johnson have discovered how to reduce feet.

Alfonso Tinsley and Lewis West are doing wonders in the automobile industry. They run a junk yard for all demolished cars.

Gatha Richardson is still married and sells pencils on the corner for extra change.

Audrey Fitzgerald is working for the Featherweight Mattress Company. If the mattresses are as light as Audrey, they are superb.

Elenor Williams is the proudest dishwasher in Danville.

Shelton Penn has invented a serum when injected into a chicken produces fried, deviled, and scrambled eggs.

Alan Thomas, unfortunately, cannot be present due to an explosion when he tried to take his own picture.

Daisy King, a famous cosmetologist, has this bit of advice to offer all young girls, "Don't rouge your face, paint it."

Barbara Kyle, Quentin Lambert, and St. Clair Jones have their heads together in an effort to succeed without knowledge.

Fannie Midder has finally gotten into money. She married a Texan.

Susie Terry is doing the pigeon (dance) for the President of the United States. Good Luck, Susie!

Claude Miller, that great speaker, makes extra change selling wagon wheels.

Lillian Nobles got caught in the mad rush for New York and now she is singing, "Show Me The Way To Go Home."

Class Prophecy

Jeanette Rice won first prize as best marble shooter of the year.

Charles Wardell is still trying to be a lover. He is doing his level best to put Clark Gable out of circulation.

Shirley Burton and Charles Shirley were sent to the Geneva Conference to see if they could settle their dispute. I see they are being presented with a Nobel Peace Prize Award.

Barbara Pettus makes a good living working in a nursery (for chickens).

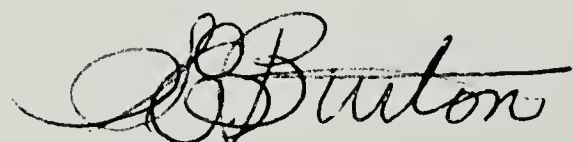

Kenneth Wright and Otto Washington are in town planning for an inter-planetary trip. The weather is cold, so they are stacking up on L.W.D.'S.

Sophia Johnson makes puppets for a living.

Therasa Wilkins now runs a "Lonely Hearts Column."

Georgia Parker has finally hooked a husband. She is here on her honeymoon. Congratulations, Georgia!

Samuel Lockley has put Frankenstein out of business he has created a new monster called Yelkcol Leumas.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Shirley Burton". The signature is written in dark ink and is located at the bottom right of the page.
